The paragraph headings used herein are inserted for convenience only and are not part of the ESCA.

1:00 RECOGNITION OF EQUITY AND THE APPLICATION OF AGREEMENT BOTH
The Second City Theatre, Inc. Toronto agrees to recognize Canadian Actors' Equity Association as the exclusive bargaining representative of the Artists (Performers, Directors, Choreographers, Fight Directors Stage Managers, and Assistant Stage Managers) engaged by it for the purpose of collective bargaining and the administration of matters within the scope of this Agreement.

2:00 THEATRICALS BOTH
When the Theatre wishes to engage in the mounting of Theatricals as defined in Clause 8:34, the Theatre shall adhere to and follow all terms and conditions of the Independent Theatre Agreement specifically for such a production.

3:00 ARTIST'S OBLIGATIONS TO EQUITY BOTH
Nothing contained in any engagement contract signed by an Artist shall interfere with the carrying out of any obligation which an Artist owes to Equity by virtue of the Artist's signing the contract. The Theatre shall not request or require any Artist to do any act or thing forbidden by the Constitution and Bylaws of Equity or by the rules or regulations of the Council of Equity, of its authorized representatives. The Theatre will require the Artist to do and/or assent to the Artist doing any and all acts required by the foregoing.
3:01 Equity Members in Good Standing
As a condition of engagement, an Equity member shall be a member in good standing during the entire term of their engagement. The Equity member has authorized Equity to act on their behalf with reference to the specific matters set out in the ESCA.
Up to fourteen (14) days prior to the intended start date of an ESCA Engagement Contract, the Theatre may inquire in writing, as to the status of an Artist's membership directly from Equity. Upon confirmation from Equity that a member is in good standing, for the purposes and duration of the ESCA Engagement Contract, the member shall be deemed to be in good standing. Should the member fall into arrears between confirmation from Equity and the end of the ESCA Engagement Contract, it is the member's sole responsibility to rectify the situation directly with Equity.
At the time of the Theatre's inquiry, should the member be found to be not in good standing, or should Equity be unable to confirm that a member is in good standing, the Theatre may withdraw any contract offer without recourse by the member or Equity.

3:02 Equity Constitution and Bylaws
If the Constitution, Bylaws, rules and regulations of Equity as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, are in conflict with the fulfilment of the provisions of the ESCA, then the provisions of the ESCA shall prevail.

3:03 Discipline of Members
Notwithstanding the above, nothing herein contained shall be deemed to limit the right of Equity to suspend, expel or otherwise discipline any member or refuse to admit any non-member pursuant to the Constitution, Bylaws, rules and regulations of Equity.

4:00 BINDING EFFECT OF AGREEMENT
Agreements between the Theatre and so-called “packagers”, casting consultants, agents, Theatre's representatives, or Artist's representatives shall in no way limit or reduce the Theatre’s liability or responsibility to fulfil all terms and conditions of the ESCA Engagement Contracts to which the Theatre is a signatory.
All ESCA Engagement Contracts signed pursuant to this Equity Second City Agreement are binding not only upon the signers on the face thereof, but upon any and all corporations, co-partnerships, enterprises, and/or groups, which either signer directs, controls or is interested in, and are hereby agreed to be adopted as their contract by each of them.

5:00 LAWS GOVERNING

5:01 Provincial Jurisdiction
Except as provided hereinafter, the ESCA shall be subject to and construed by the laws of the province in which the Theatre has its point of origin.

5:02 Statutory Conflicts

5:03 Canadian Statutes
Any clauses contained herein illegal in Canada, or any province, territory or municipality thereof shall not be binding therein. Any illegality in any clause of the ESCA shall not affect any other clause of the ESCA.

5:04 Provisions Affected
If any provision of the ESCA shall be held invalid or unlawful by any tribunal of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions shall not be affected thereby, but shall remain severally valid, binding and in full force and effect.
6:00 PRODUCTION PROSECUTED

Should the production in which the Artist is engaged be complained of as being in violation of any statute, ordinance, or law of Canada, or any province or any municipality in any province, and should a claim or charge be made against the Artist on account of being engaged in such production, either civil or criminal, the Theatre shall defend the Artist at the Theatre’s own expense, or shall pay any and all reasonable charges laid out or incurred by the Artist in the Theatre’s defense, and indemnify the Artist against any loss or damage which the Artist may suffer on account of being engaged in any such production.

It is specifically agreed and understood between the Artist and the Theatre that the language, business, and costuming of the play are under the control and direction of the Theatre and author who, according to custom, can at any time delete or amend the scenes and lines, and that consequently the Artist has no certain method of knowing during rehearsals, whether in its final presentation the play is susceptible of being considered immoral or indecent. Therefore, the Theatre expresses to the Artist that the production as produced shall not violate any law or give offense which is punishable by any law, and expressly agrees that should the Theatre or the author be arrested or summoned on such charges, that (Equity consenting) the Artist may end and terminate the engagement forthwith. Upon such termination, the Theatre shall pay to the Artist forthwith all sums due under the ESCA plus one week’s fee, as compensation for the termination of the engagement without notice, but in no event shall the Artist receive less than a total of two weeks’ fees.

This Clause shall not apply to any case or any set of conditions where its enforcement would be illegal or against public policy. In the case of an arrest on account of the nature of the play or its production, the Theatre shall forthwith furnish bail for the Artist and, in the event of the Theatre’s failure to do so or for any breach of this Clause, the Theatre shall pay to the Artist (Equity consenting) the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00). After an arrest, the Artist may demand a suspension of performance pending a determination, and such suspension shall not terminate or otherwise affect the terms of the ESCA unless Equity shall otherwise order.

Sexual Harassment: Engaging in a course of vexatious comment or conduct because of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression, where the course of comment or conduct is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome or making a sexual solicitation or advance where the person making the advance is in a position to confer, grant or deny a benefit or advancement and that person knows or ought reasonably to know that the solicitation or advance is unwelcome.

Ordinarily, repeated comment or conduct is required to demonstrate harassment, however single acts of sufficient severity may also constitute harassment.

Bullying is a distinct form of personal harassment and may include, but is not restricted to, some of the following: loud, abusive behaviour, unjustified criticism, shunning behaviours (including withholding information, ganging up, and deliberate isolation from colleagues or exclusion from joint activities), and repeated delegation of demeaning tasks.

The parties agree that a complaint made to the Theatre is to be investigated. Equity agrees that it shall advise the Theatre of any complaint made to Equity that involves a member of management. Equity and the Theatre agree that it is the responsibility of the Theatre to conduct an investigation into any complaint made to the Theatre or a complaint made that involves a member of management.

The Theatre and Equity agree that an investigation should be conducted in a confidential manner.

9:04 Requirement to Report

If a complaint is brought forward by an Equity member at the specific request of a non-member, or if a complaint is made against an Equity member, the Theatre shall immediately advise Equity that an investigation is under way. Upon written consent of the Equity member, the Theatre shall share with Equity a summary report of the actions and findings.

9:05 Relief of Termination Payment without further remuneration. Equity may grant such relief, provided it is satisfied that such termination of the Artist's ESCA Engagement Contract is the appropriate resolution.

Article, either party may refer the dispute to the dispute resolution procedures 12:00.

where it has been determined that discrimination as described in this Article is practised against will continue to render their services until final determination has been made under the provisions of Article 12:00.

(D) Discrimination Due to Pregnancy or Parental Status
An Artist's pregnancy or parental status shall not prevent the Artist from enjoying full and equal audition and engagement opportunities. Under no circumstances shall an Artist's pregnancy be considered grounds for termination, unless it impinges on the artistic integrity of the production, to be determined by the Theatre.

(E) Discrimination for Association Activity
(i) Prohibition of Discrimination
The Theatre shall not dismiss or otherwise penalize any Equity member for fulfilling their duties or obligations as a Deputy, elected officer, or member of Equity.

(ii) Claims
Any Equity member who claims that the Theatre has given them notice or otherwise penalized them for fulfilling their duties as an Equity member, may present their case to the Executive Director of Equity who shall give the Theatre the opportunity to be heard. If the Executive Director of Equity is satisfied that such activities are the real cause of dismissal or of any penalty, it shall have the power to determine the character and the amount of a penalty to be assessed against the Theatre. Should the Theatre disagree with the Executive Director's decision or with the assessed penalty, it may appeal through arbitration according to the further provisions of Article 12:00.

Recognizing the need to expand the participation of diverse Artists, the Theatre will conduct a flexible and imaginative casting policy known as inclusive casting. Inclusive casting is for the purpose of increasing engagement of racialized Artists, seniors, women and performers with disabilities in roles where race, ethnicity, age, gender, or the presence of a physical disability is not absolutely essential to the production. In addition, the parties hereto encourage the creation of productions that reflect the diversity of our society.

The Theatre agrees that casting will be conducted in a manner that provides full and fair consideration to all Artists regardless of race, ethnicity, gender, age, sexual orientation and disability. All parts or roles shall be open to all Artists without prejudice and active solicitation of Artists of all races, ethnicities, genders, ages, sexual orientations and disabilities shall be evident.

(C) Inclusive Hiring

The Theatre and Equity shall affirm their commitment to a policy of equal engagement opportunities designed to promote a positive model of equal engagement and multi-ethnic diversity within the Theatre’s place of business. 15:00 BLACKLISTING

The Theatre and Equity both pledge themselves to prevent blacklisting in the industry. Opposition to blacklisting is not a controversial issue between the Theatre and Equity. The information provided on the checklist must be the most up-to-date and accurate information available at the time of filing. 20:00 POSTING OF SECURITY

20:01 Maintenance of Satisfactory Security

(A) Requirement

It is the essence of the ESCA and all ESCA Engagement Contracts, and a condition precedent to the engagement of the Artist, that the Theatre shall file and maintain with Equity satisfactory security as required by this Clause. Such satisfactory security shall include agreements in the form of Letters of Credit or an Equity approved Bond Insurance program and Security Agreements.

(B) Liability

20:04 Cash Deposits

Where the Theatre deposits cash with Equity, it shall receive interest payments on such deposits as may be agreed upon in writing between the Theatre and Equity.

20:05 Theatres in Arrears

Where Equity can demonstrate that the Theatre is substantially or repeatedly in arrears with remittances, as stipulated in the ESCA, Equity shall have the right to increase the amount of security required.
Equity requires an increase to the amount of security, the Theatre shall immediately provide such an increase. However, if the Theatre disputes the increase, it may, after having provided the increase, have recourse to the provisions of Article 12:00 for the relief of this requirement.

20:06 Drawing Upon Security

No Equity member shall work, or be required to work or continue in the engagement of the Theatre, if and when the security arrangements do not meet the requirements of this Article. Equity may draw upon the securities posted to meet payment to Artists of unpaid fees, including payments for additional services, applicable service taxes, deducted dues payments and joining fees, remittances to Equity, and transportation costs of the Artist to the point of origin and return to the Artist's place of residence, provided that it shall simultaneously inform the Theatre of its action. However, the Theatre recognizes Equity's need to protect the interests of its members in an emergency, and, therefore, should it prove impossible to contact the Theatre or its authorized representative in an emergency, Equity may proceed to draw upon security.

Any and all riders, changes, alterations, waivers, or substitutions made prior to, when, or after a contract of engagement is made shall have been consented to by Equity in writing; otherwise, they are void. It shall be the duty of the Theatre, not the Artist, to submit proposed changes to Equity for its written approval by a duly authorized representative. All concession requests shall be submitted to Equity in writing by the Theatre no less than twenty (20) business days before the concession would take effect. An original Artist is defined as an original member of the ensemble who wrote and created the production for the resident stage. Offers need not be made to Artists who have not completed at least thirty (30) performances of the original role or position. The offers may not be at a rate of less than the original Contractual Fee of the Artist at the time of termination. 23:09  Unpaid Fees BOTH
When Equity or an Artist claims that fees, including additional services fees and overtime payments, remittances to Equity, goods and services taxes and transportation costs of the Artist to the point of origin and return, have not been paid, or have only partially been paid when due, Equity shall have the right to require the Theatre to pay forthwith, on behalf of the Artist, such sums as are claimed to be outstanding.
Should the Theatre dispute such claim(s) it shall have recourse to the arbitration procedures of the ESCA. Where the Theatre does not pay the outstanding sums claimed by Equity for non-payment or partial payment of fees as outlined above, the Artist shall have the right to terminate forthwith their contract with the Theatre, Equity consenting. However, upon application by the Theatre, Equity may grant a grace period not to exceed seven (7) calendar days. Equity shall have an alternative right to pay to the Artist their contractual fee or other monies owing to the Artist out of any security deposited by the Theatre. It is also recognized that Stage Management personnel will have varied degrees of experience and personal approaches to their work. Therefore, the length of time required for preparation will also vary. However, it is the intention of this Clause to allow what is considered to be a reasonable time period to accomplish the preparation work, and is not intended to allow for overtime payments that may occur as a result of the particular style of the Stage Management personnel.
